Program Topics

What is ESG and Sustainable Investing?

Uncover why money managers are considering Environmental, Social, Governance (ESG) issues to evaluate a broader set of investment risks and opportunities for companies and industries. Learn how different ESG investing is from yesterday's methods of responsible investing. Understand how ESG shapes companies and how it is shaping asset and wealth management into the future.

Why and how Foundations and Donors use Sustainable, ESG and Impact Investing to further their efforts.

The nature of asset stewardship is changing and Foundations as well as donors are expanding the influence of their investments and donations. Understand how incorporation can inspire and excite all types of donors.

Program Speaker

Christina Alfandary

ESG and Sustainable Investments, GAMCO Asset Management

Christina L. Alfandary is Managing Director, Environmental, Social & Governance (ESG) and Sustainable Investments at GAMCO Asset

Management, a wholly owned subsidiary—dedicated to institutional and private advisory accounts—of GAMCO Investors, Inc., a publicly traded company (NYSE: GBL) whose investment management business was founded in 1977 by veteran value investor Mario Gabelli.

At GAMCO, Ms. Alfandary leads the company's ESG integration efforts and ESG investing capabilities, expanding its thirty plus year history in the arena. Ms. Alfandary has over twenty-five years of experience in the investment business.

Prior to re-joining GAMCO, she served as Senior Managing Director, Co-Head of Nikko Asset Management Americas, Inc. And prior to Nikko AM, she was a Vice President at GAMCO Investors from 2000 to 2005 where she worked with institutional and high net worth clients. Her investment experience includes working at Morgan Stanley from 1990 to 2000, both in institutional fixed income as well as an analyst in municipal finance.

Ms. Alfandary is a frequent speaker related to ESG. She is a guest lecturer at Fordham University and is also a member of the Board of Trustees of the Thacher School. She received an M.B.A. in Finance from Columbia Business School after earning her B.A. from Lewis & Clark College.
